PRIVACY DETAILS.

We will never share your details with third parties.

Please complete this Agreement Form and return with your application.

I agree to the following code of behaviour and agreement in order for my application to be processed as a volunteer Trustee at Angel Shed's Theatre.

1. All staff members, voluntary practitioners and Trustees are responsible for establishing and maintaining appropriate boundaries in respect to their relationships with the children and young people and/or ensuring that their own emotional needs are not dependent on these relationships. No staff member, voluntary practitioner or Trustee should build a special relationship with any one child.
2. As much as possible, staff members, voluntary practitioners and Trustees must try not to find themselves in a position where they are alone with a child.
3. If Angel Shed becomes in any way financially unstable Trustees are liable to pay up to the sum of £1 only towards the company's debt.
4. Trustees should take responsibility for monitoring one another's work, insuring all input into the company is for the benefit of Angel Shed and not the individual or any organisation that they are otherwise affiliated with or work for.
5. Trustees must agree to under going an Enhanced DBS check through CANDI college
6. Appropriate care must be taken to uphold the inclusive ethos of the company.
7. Trustees must provide up to date contact information.
8. As part of our remit we must ensure that all projects involve a range of people from a variety of backgrounds. This will inform acceptance of applications, we therefore reserve the right to turn-down applications in order to maintain this balance.
9. Trustees must keep confidentiality when asked.
10. Trustees must observe all Health & Safety requirements as directed.
11. Trustees need to read Angel Shed Child Protection & Safe Guarding Policy.
12. Trustees must not befriend any children or young people involved with Angel Shed on any social networking sites.
